

Her Mothers Daughter

From the simmering coastline of the Eastern Cape to the bushveld of Mphumalanga where wild animals roam free, Keri follows her dream; an obsession really, to emulate her mothers fame as a world renowned artist. She knows she has her mothers talent but is afraid that she has very little of her genius. Fortuitously, after years of struggling, she finds a benefactor, a wealthy widower with a teenage daughter. He comes to mean more to her than merely a vehicle to achieve her goal in life.. She grows to desire this man with a need that equals her lifelong artistic ambitions.Beautiful, intelligent and talented, he cannot resist her physical appeal. But will he grow to love her as she so desperately needs him to? And what of the secret she carries? A secret that could destroy his peace of mind and any love for her that may be kindling in his cynical heart?
