

Baptist Annals of Oregon 1844-1900, Volume I

The first volume of this two volume work is a history of the Baptist church in Oregon between the years 1844 to 1886. It begins with the founding of the 7 member West Union Baptist Church in Washington County and the early churches growth, through the troubles caused by the Civil War, the mending of the divisions in the church after the Wars end, and the renewed work of spreading the Gospel through Oregon.
