Excerpt: ... 4 An. 24 Car. I. be Salva Cujiodia, though but lately they had In, T .., formation to the contrary. The Distinction beJoJv. tween the Kings natural and political Capacity was Treason in the Spencers; (and so declared by two-Acts of Parliament in the Time of Ed. II. and Ed. III.) and my Lord Cote, in Calvins Case, affirmed, They are inseparable by Law. In Answer to this Mr. Scott said, That the City was as obnoxious to the Kings Anger as any Part of the Kingdom;. and if the Treaty mould be in London, who could secure the Parliament that the City would not make their Peace with the enraged King, by delivering up their Heads to him for a Sacrifice, as the Men of Samaria did the Heads of the seventy Sons of jibab? It was also further moved, That if the King came not to London, but to one of his Houses about ten Miles from thence, he might be desired to give his Royal Word to reside their until the Conclusion of the Treaty. Colonel Harvey slighted this Motion, vilifying the Kings Royal Word, and saying, There was no Trust in Princes: To this Purpose he alledged, That the King's Promise had been frequently broken; as when he protested that the Sasety and Privileges of Parliament should be as precious to him as the Sasety of his Wise and Children; and yet, within three or four Days after, came with armed Guards to force the House, in the Case of the five Members. This Argument was sarther urged by Sir Henry Vane, Jun. and Sir Henry Mildmay (d), who attempted to instance many Particulars to.prove that the King was a perjured Man, and therefore ought-in no Case to be trusted: Whereupon Sir Symonds DEiues stood up, and declared himself to be of a contrary

Opinion; for that the House not only ought, but must, trust his Majesty; and that they were not in a Con...
